About the Conservatory

Located at Porticos Art Space, adjacent to the beautiful campus of St. James United Methodist Church in northeast Pasadena, the Arroyo Repertory Theatre's Summer Art Conservatory offers students from 1st - 12th grade opportunities to explore their creative side in many different ways!

From visual design and graphic storytelling, to music and theatre, our courses offer students the opportunity to create, collaborate and problem solve, all while making friendships and having fun.

Our curriculum and instruction is developed by credentialed educators in allignment with Common Core State Standards and the California Arts Framework.

Arroyo Repertory Theatre is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization focused on the encouragement and development of artistic experiences and expression in the community. Our team consists of writers, performers, directors, designers, and educators - but we are all artists.

Creating a Vibrant Arts Community

Summer Art Conservatory

The Summer Art Conservatory runs a variety of summer workshops spanning two sessions: June 15 - July 2 and July 6 - July 24. Our workshops run daily from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm, with extended care beginning at 7:30 am and ending at 5:30 pm.

Lunch will not be provided, so please pack yourself or your students a lunch and water if they are scheduled for a full day of workshops! Refrigeration is available at a limited capacity.

Some workshops will culminate in a final performance at Porticos Art Space. The weekly sessions run consecutively for students who would like to spend the whole summer with us!
